“Trusting God in the Storm”

Storms—even SHIPWRECKS—will come.

One of the most DETAILED accounts of early sea travel is found in the Bible.

Acts 27-28

Even in the storm—“it is WELL with my soul.”

In and through the storms:

1. God provides HOPE and ENCOURAGEMENT.
2. God provides OPPORTUNITIES to help others.
3. God provides DELIVERANCE.

Communion

West Erwin will have someone at the main drive through entrance of the church building Saturday between 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. to distribute individual pre-packaged communion bread/cups.

Other locations:

Lindale area contact Donnie Carnathan

Whitehouse and south Tyler areas contact Danny Snell

A Suggested Communion Bread Recipe

1 1/2 c. flour

1/4 c. plus 2 tsp. shortening

Pinch salt

Water

Sift flour and salt into large mixing bowl. Add shortening and blend until like fine meal. Store in covered container if desired but don't refrigerate. You can store up to one month. For each 8" x 12" pan, measure 1 c. of mix and 3 T. water into bowl. With a stirring, cutting motion, quickly blend until all particles form a ball. Roll out very thin on wax paper into rectangle slightly larger than pan. Divide into 2" x 3" portions by dotted lines. Bake at 275 degrees for 48 to 50 minutes. Will be cream colored, not brown. Makes 2.
